LaDawna Harrington

presents... New AASL Standards

LaDawna Harrington, NJASL's Liaison to the AASL, will be presenting at this meeting. She will be unveiling the NEW AASL Standards released back in November 2017. We would like the meeting to be helpful for you by updating standards in your lesson plans, highlighting the importance of a media specialist to your administration, and advocating/adopting standards if your curriculum or department does not have a curriculum for media specialists.
